60

Complete Article

Each shipping piece or package and contents thereof constitute one article except the total component parts of any article taken apart or knocked down for handling or loading in vehicle shall constitute one article for the purpose of determining carrier's liability as provided in Rule 70.

Note: When entire shipment is transported in containers or shipping boxes, each shipping package, piece or loose item not enclosed within a package will constitute the Article.

Declaration of Value

- a. Shippers are required to state specifically in writing the agreed or declared value of of the property, otherwise a base value of $.60 per pound per article will apply. Where value is in excess of $.60 per pound per article is declared, at the option of the shipper, the carrier will provide full declared value protection through special insurance at an added charge equivalent to the required premium.
- b. If shipper declines to declare the value or agree to release value in writing, the shipment may not be accepted. If accepted, base release value of $.60 per pound per article will apply (See Rule 120).

Claims

- a. Any claims for loss, damage or overcharge shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by the bill for transportation and two estimates of repair or replacement. Carrier may require a certified or sworn statement of claim.
- b. Carrier shall be immediately notified of all claims from concealed damage and shall be given a reasonable opportunity to inspect alleged concealed damage in original package.

- c. Limitation of time for filing claims shall be 7 days. The carrier's liability shall not exceed the cost of repairing or replacing the property lost or damaged with materials of like kind or quality not exceeding the actual cash value of the property at time and place of loss, with due allowance for depreciation or deterioration howsoever caused. In no event shall the carrier's liability exceed:
 - (1) The released value not exceeding $0.60 per pound per article
 - (2) If shipper has declared a value on the entire shipment such proportion of the actual value of the article or articles lost or damaged shall be determined under Rule 70.

- d. The carrier's liability for goods shall cease when the property has been delivered to and received for by the owner, or by the consignee or shipper or the authorized agent of either, except as to damage noted at time of delivery. When the carrier is directed to unload or delivery property (or render any services) at a place or places at which the consignee or its agent is not present, the property shall be at the risk of the owner after unloading or delivery.

- e. Where the carrier is directed to load property from (or render any service at) a place or places at which the consignor or its agent is not present, the property shall be at the risk of the owner before loading.

- f. The carrier's liability with regard to sets or matched pieces shall be limited to repair or replacement of the lost or damaged piece or pieces only and shall not extend to repair, replacement or recovering of the entire set, but in no event to exceed:
 - (1) The released value not exceeding $0.60 per pound per article
 - (2) If shipper has declared a value on the entire shipment such proportion of the actual value of the article or articles lost or damaged shall be determined under Rule 70.

Rule No. RULES AND REGULATIONS

85 Claims for Lost or Damaged Freight or Baggage

A claim by a shipper or consignor against a common or motor carrier for lost or damaged freight or baggage must be submitted to the carrier within 7 days after the loss or damage is discovered. Within 14 days after receipt of the claim, the carrier shall:

- (a) Compensate the shipper or consignor; or
- (b) Deliver to the shipper or consignor a written denial of the claim

A denial of the claim may be appealed by the shipper or consignor to the Nevada Transportation Authority at (702)486-3303 or <http://www.nta.nv.gov>

90 Failure to Make Delivery

- a. In all instances where carrier is unable to locate the consignee at the address (if known by carrier); or where the consignee is unable or declines to accept delivery of the shipment, or the shipment remains in the possession of the carrier pursuant to instructions of the shipper or consignee, notification of failure to make delivery will be mailed or telegraphed to the consignee, consignor or owner, and/or written notice delivered to the premises where actual delivery was to be effected. At the option of the carrier, shipment may be placed in a public warehouse, and upon such liability to carrier shall immediately cease and liability shall thereafter be only that of the warehouseman in possession.
- b. In cases where a "subsequent delivery" is called for and made, charges will be assessed for such "subsequent delivery" on the basis of Rule 300 from carrier's terminal or from the public warehouse (as the case may be) to place of delivery.

100 Impracticable Pick-up or Delivery

- a. It is the responsibility of the shipper to make shipment accessible to carrier or accept delivery from carrier at a point at which the road haul vehicle may be safely operated.

- b. When it is physically impossible for carrier to perform pick-up of shipment at original address or to complete delivery of shipment at destination address with normally assigned road haul equipment, due to the structure of the building, its inaccessibility by highway, inadequate or unsafe public or private road, overhead obstructions, narrow gates, sharp turns, trees, shrubbery, the deterioration of the roadway due to rain, flood, snow, or nature of an article at point of pick-up or tender delivery at destination at the nearest point of approach to the desired location where the road haul equipment can be made safely accessible.
- c. Upon request of the shipper, consignee or owner of the goods, the carrier will use or engage smaller equipment than its normal road haul equipment or provide extra labor for the purpose, if possible to accomplishment of transferring the shipment between the residence and the nearest point of approach by the carrier's road haul equipment. Charges for the auxiliary service to cover the labor and additional certificated vehicle (if used) will be as provided in Rule 300 and shall be in addition to all other transportation or accessorial charges.
- d. If the shipper does not accept the shipment at the nearest point of safe approach by carrier's road haul equipment to the destination address, the carrier may place the shipment, or any part thereof not reasonably possible for delivery, in storage at the nearest available public warehouse, subject to a lien for all lawful charges. The liability on the part of the carrier will cease when the shipment is unloaded into the warehouse and the shipment shall be considered as having been delivered.
- e. Transportation charges to cover the movement of shipment or part thereon from point at which it was originally tendered to warehouse location shall constitute a new shipment, subject to applicable rate as provided in tariff from point at which it was originally tendered to warehouse location, which shall be in addition to charges from initial point of origin to point at which shipment was originally tendered. All accrued charges on the shipment or any part thereof shall be due and payable upon delivery of same to the warehouse. Any subsequent movement from warehouse shall constitute a new shipment.

110 Impracticable Operation

Nothing in this tariff shall require the carrier to perform any line-haul service or pick-up or delivery service or any other service from or to or at any point or location where, through no fault or neglect of the carrier, the operation of vehicles is impracticable because:

- a. the condition of the roads, streets, driveways, alleys, or approaches thereto would subject operation to unreasonable risk or loss or damage to life or property;
- b. loading or unloading facilities are inadequate; or
- c. any force majeure, war, insurrection, riot, civil disturbance, strike picketing, or other labor disturbance would (1) subject operations to unreasonable risk of loss or damage to life or property or (2) unreasonably jeopardize the ability of the carrier to render line-haul or pick-up or delivery or any other service from or to or at other points or locations.

120 Insurance

The cost of any insurance in the name of the shipper, or for the benefit of the shipper will not be assumed by the carrier (see Rule 70).

130 Moving and Packing

- a. Articles of fragile or breakable nature must be properly packed. No claims will be allowed on any such items that are not packed by the carrier.
- b. The contents of all desk or dresser drawers, other than clothing, must be removed. File cabinet with contents must be locked or otherwise securely fastened.
- c. Oversized or unique items such as pianos, organs, safes, full-sized copiers, fire proof tile cabinets, pool tables, marble top tables, riding lawn mower and motorcycles may result in extra charges to the shipper for the delivery of such individual items as shown in Rule 300.

140 Payment of Charges

- a. The carrier will not deliver or relinquish possession of any property transported by it until all tariff rates and advance charges included in the original estimate have been paid by cash, money order, credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express) or cashier's check, except where other arrangements have been made in advance.
- b. The carrier shall have lien rights on any property transported by it for all charges incurred.
- c. The shipper will furnish the carrier, upon demand, a certified statement describing and setting forth the actual cash value of any property in possession of carrier being held for payment.
- d. After 7 days, with proper notice, carrier shall have the right to sell, as shipper's agent at public or private sale, any property of shipper's in satisfaction of any charges not paid in full.
- e. Upon default by the shipper, carrier is entitled to collect legal fees, costs and interest as provided in the contract.

150 Pick-up and Delivery at Warehouse

Except as otherwise provided herein, if shipment is delivered to or picked up at a warehouse, the rate for transportation includes only the unloading or loading at the door, platform, or other point convenient or accessible to the vehicle.

160 Shipments Accepted Subject to Laws

Shipments will be accepted subject to the requirements of ordinances or limitation of laws regulating the transportation of the property, or the use of the vehicles and facilities.

220 Early Termination of Shipment

- a. The carrier reserves the right to stop work at any time for health and safety of its employees and demand payment for time worked and time estimated to complete the shipment.
- b. The shipper reserves the right to stop work at any time. Minimum charges still apply.

295 Estimate of Charges

If requested by the shipper the carrier will perform a visual inspection of the goods and provide the shipper a written estimate of the charges. The original estimate shall be delivered to the shipper and a copy maintained by the carrier in carrier's record of shipment.

The estimate shall be based upon the carrier's tariff filed with the Nevada Transportation Authority. The final charge for transporting shipper's goods may not exceed the estimate unless the customer requests services that are not included in the written estimate and agrees to pay for the additional services so requested. If the final charge is less than the estimate, the carrier shall only collect the actual charge for the service.
