RULES AND REGULATIONS

80. Claims

A. Any claims for loss, damage or overcharge shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by the bill for transportation and two estimates of repair or replacement. Carrier may require a certified or sworn statement of claim.

B. Carrier shall be immediately notified of all claims for concealed damage and shall be given a reasonable opportunity to inspect alleged concealed damage in original package.

C. Limitation of time for filing claims shall be 7 days. The carrier's liability shall not exceed the cost of repairing or replacing the property lost or damaged with materials of like kind or quality not exceeding the actual cash value of the property at time and place of loss, with due allowances for depreciation or deterioration howsoever caused, but in no event to exceed the released value to a lump sum for the entire shipment, such proportion of the actual value of the article or articles lost or damaged as shall be determined under Rule 70.

D. The carrier's liability for goods shall cease when the property has been delivered to and receipted for by the owner, or by the consignee or shipper or the authorized agent of either, except as to damage noted at the time of delivery. When the carrier is directed to unload or deliver property (or render any services) at a place or places at which the consignee or its agent is not present the property shall be at the risk of the owner after unloading or delivery.

E. Where the carrier is directed to load property from (or render) any service at a place or places at which the consignor or its agent is not present, the property shall be at risk of the owner before loading.

F. The carrier’s liability with regard to sets or matched pieces shall be limited to repair or replacement of the lost or damaged piece or pieces only and shall not extend to repair, replacement or recovering of the entire set, but in no event to exceed: (1) the released value not exceeding 60 cents per pound per article; or (2) if shipper has declared a value on the entire shipment such proportion of the actual value of the article or articles lost or damaged shall be determined under Rule 70.

G. The services provided by this tariff do not include the servicing of refrigerators, stoves, deep freeze cabinets, radios, record players, washing machines, dryers, television sets, air conditioners, television aerials or other articles or appliances requiring special servicing, prior to or immediately after transportation.

85. Claims for Lost or Damaged Freight or Baggage

A claim by a shipper or consignor against a common or motor carrier for lost or damaged freight or baggage must be submitted to the carrier within 7 days after the loss or damage is discovered. Within 14 days after receipt of the claim, the carrier shall:

A. Compensate the shipper or consignor; or
B. Deliver to the shipper or consignor a written denial of the claim.

A denial of the claim may be appealed by the shipper or consignor to the Transportation Services Authority.
90. Failure to Make Delivery

A. In all instances where carrier is unable to locate the consignee at the address (if known by carrier); or where the consignee is unable or declines to accept delivery of the shipment, or the shipment remains in the possession of the carrier pursuant to instructions of the shipper or consignee, notification of failure to make delivery will be mailed or telegraphed to the consignee, consignor or owner, or written notice delivered to the premises where actual delivery was to be effected or to the carrier, or at the option of the carrier, in a public warehouse, and upon such placement liability as a carrier shall immediately cease and liability shall thereafter be only that of the warehouseman in possession.

B. In cases where a "subsequent delivery" is called for and made, charges will be assessed for such "subsequent delivery" on the basis of charges lawfully applicable from carrier's terminal or from the public warehouse (as the case may be) to place of delivery.

100. Impracticable Pick-up or Delivery

A. It is the responsibility of the shipper to make shipment accessible to carrier or accept delivery from carrier at a point at which the road haul vehicle may be safely operated.

B. When it is physically impossible for carrier to perform pick-up of shipment at origin address or to complete delivery of shipment at destination address with normally assigned road haul equipment, due to the structure of the building, its inaccessibility by highway, inadequate or unsafe public or private road, overhead obstructions, narrow gates, sharp turns, trees, shrubbery, the deterioration of roadway due to rain, flood, snow, or nature of an article at point of pick-up or tender delivery at destination at the nearest point of approach to the desired location where the road haul equipment can be made safely accessible.
C. Upon request of the shipper, consignee or owner of the goods, the carrier will use or engage smaller equipment than its normal road haul equipment or provide extra labor for the purpose, if possible of accomplishing of transferring the shipment between the residence and the nearest point of approach by the carrier’s road haul equipment. Charges for the auxiliary service to cover labor and additional vehicle (if used) will be as provided in Rule 300 and shall be in addition to all other transportation or accessorail charges.

D. If the shipper does not accept the shipment at nearest point of safe approach by carrier’s road haul equipment to the destination address, the carrier may place the shipment, or any part thereof not reasonably possible for delivery, in storage at the nearest available warehouse of the carrier, or, at the option of the carrier, in a public warehouse, subject to a lien for all lawful charges. The liability on the part of the carrier will cease when the shipment is unloaded into the warehouse and the shipment shall be considered as having been delivered.

E. Transportation charges to cover the movement of shipment or part thereon from point at which it was originally tendered to warehouse location shall constitute a new shipment, subject to applicable rates as provided in tariff from point at which it was originally tendered to warehouse location, which shall be in addition to charges from initial point of origin to point at which shipment was originally tendered. All accrued charges on the shipment or any part thereof shall be due and payable upon delivery of same to the warehouse. Any subsequent movement from warehouse shall constitute a new shipment.
Rule No. 110.  Impracticable Operation

Nothing in this tariff shall require the carrier to perform any line-haul service or pick-up or Delivery service or any other service from or to or at any point or location where, through no Fault or neglect of the carrier, the operation of vehicles is impracticable because:

A. the condition of roads, streets, driveways, alleys or approaches thereto would subject operations to unreasonable risk or loss or damage to life or property;

B. loading or unloading facilities are inadequate.

C. any force of nature, war, insurrection, riot, civil disturbance, strike, picketing, or other labor disturbance would (1) subject operations to unreasonable risk of loss or damage to life or property or (2) unreasonably jeopardize the ability of the carrier to render line-haul or pick-up or delivery or any other service from or to or at other points or locations.

Rule No. 120.  Insurance

The cost of any insurance in the name of the shipper, or for the benefit of the shipper will not be assumed by the carrier. (See Rule 70).

Rule No. 130.  Moving and Packing

A. Articles of fragile or breakable nature must be properly packed.

B. Where shipments are improperly or unsafely packed, crated or boxed, and by reason thereof the contents may be destroyed or damaged, carrier will arrange to have such shipment properly packed and charges shown in Rule 300 of this tariff will be assessed.

C. The shipper shall provide all original packing boxes or agree to use boxes as provided by the carrier.

Rule 135. Bill of Lading

Upon completion of shipment of customer’s household goods, Carrier shall present to the Person paying for the shipment the original bill for payment. Such bill shall show:

A. The name and address of the Carrier;
B. The names of the consignor and consignee;
C. The points of origin and destination;
D. The date and time the shipment was received by the Carrier;
E. The date and time of arrival of the shipment at its destination;
F. The date of the bill;
G. The weight of the shipment, if applicable;
H. The route over which the household goods were transported, the name of the point of transfer and the name of each carrier participating in the transportation;
I. The numbers of the vehicles which transported the household goods;
J. An adequate description of the property transported, including the number of items carried;
K. The rate charged for the service;
L. Any other charge incident to the transportation;
M. A statement that Carrier’s rates are subject to regulation by the Transportation Services Authority; and
N. Any other information required by the Transportation Services Authority.
140. Payment of Charges

A. The Carrier will not deliver or relinquish possession of any property transported by until all tariff rates and advance charges have been paid by cash, money order, or cashier's check, except where other arrangements have been made in advance.

B. The carrier shall have lien rights on any property transported by it for all charges incurred.

C. The shipper will furnish the carrier, upon demand, a certified statement describing and setting forth the actual cash value of any property in possession of carrier being held for payment.

D. After 7 days, with proper notice, carrier shall have the right to sell, as shipper's agent, at public or private sale, any property of shipper's in satisfaction of any charges not paid in full.

E. Upon default by the shipper, carrier is entitled to collect legal fees, costs and interest as provided in the contract.

150. Pick-up and Delivery at Warehouse

Except as otherwise provided herein, if shipment is delivered to or picked up at a warehouse, the rates for transportation include only the unloading or loading at the door, platform, or other point convenient or accessible to the vehicle.

160. Shipments Accepted Subject to Laws

Shipments will be accepted subject to the requirements of ordinances or limitation of law regulating the transportation of the property, or the use of the vehicles and facilities.
170. Waiting or Delay

When a vehicle is held for convenience of shipper or consignee through no fault of the Carrier, a charge for waiting time will apply at the hourly rates shown.

180. Inspection of Packages

When the carrier or his agent believes it is necessary that the contents of packages be inspected, he shall make or cause such inspection to be made, or require other sufficient evidence to determine the actual character of the property.

190. Servicing Special Articles

The transportation rates in this tariff do not include servicing or unservicing articles or appliances such as refrigerators, deep freeze cabinets, radios, record players, washing machines, television sets, air conditioners, and the like, which, if not properly serviced may be damaged in, or incident to, transit: nor is liability assumed for any such damage.

200. Advancing of Charges

Charges advanced by carrier for services of others engaged at the request of the shipper will be supported by the carrier with a copy of an invoice setting forth the services rendered, charges and basis thereof, together with references to applicable schedule of tariff charges are assessed in accordance therewith.

When third persons are engaged by the carrier to perform any domestic or maid service, the carrier will not assume responsibility for their activities or conduct amount of their charges nor for the quality or quantity of service furnished, except as otherwise provided.

The charges so advanced are in addition to and shall be collected with all other lawful rates and charges.
Rule No.

210. Labor Charges

Cover all accessorial services for which no charges are otherwise provided in this tariff, when such services are requested by the shipper.

220. Early Termination of Shipment

A. The carrier reserves the right to stop work at any time and demand payment for the time worked and time estimated to complete the shipment.

B. The shipper reserves the right to stop work at any time. Minimum charges still apply.

Household Goods Tariff Number 1

RATES AND CHARGES

295. Estimate of Charges

Carrier shall, if requested by shipper after a visual inspection of the goods, give to the shipper a written good faith estimate of charges. The original estimate shall be delivered to the shipper and a copy maintained by Carrier in Carrier’s record of shipment.

The estimate shall be based upon the Carrier’s tariff filed with the Nevada Transportation Authority. The final charge for transporting shipper’s goods may not exceed the estimate unless the customer requests services that are not included in the written estimate and agrees to pay for the additional services so requested. If the final charge is less than the estimate, the Carrier shall only collect the actual charge for the service.

300. Application of Rates

Applying to shipments having a point of origin and/or destinations with Clark County:

1 man and 1 truck $99.00 per hour
2 men and 1 truck $149 per hour
3 men and 1 truck $199 per hour
4 men and 2 trucks $298 per hour

RATES AND CHARGES

All Shipments are subject to a three-hour minimum charge Monday through Saturday. Sunday shipments are subject to a four-hour minimum charge. This would apply to all moves, local and long distance.

A. If a shipment has a point of origin and a point of destination within the greater Las Vegas area (including North Las Vegas and Green Valley), the hourly charges apply from the point of origin and the point of destination – meaning charges start when we arrive at the shipper’s load address and end upon completion of the move at the shipper’s offload address.

B. If the Shipment has a point of origin outside of the greater Las Vegas area (including North Las Vegas and Green Valley) and a point of destination within the greater Las Vegas area, the hourly charges begin at the carrier’s dock as the point of origin and continue thereafter to the shipment pick-up point; charges end at the point of completion of the move at shipper’s final destination address.

C. If the shipment has a point of origin within the greater Las Vegas area (including North Las Vegas and Green Valley) and a point of destination outside the Greater Las Vegas area, the hourly charges begin at the shipper’s pickup point as the point of origin and continue thereafter to the carrier’s dock as the point of destination.

D. Long Distance rates as they apply to two (2) points within the state of Nevada with a destination or origin over 50 miles from Clark County will be charged a discounted hourly moving rate of $129 per hour for two men and a truck and $174 per hour for three men and a truck. The charges would begin at the carrier’s dock as the point of origin and end at the point of destination at carrier’s dock.
