Each shipping piece or package and contents thereof shall constitute one article, except the total component parts of any article taken apart or knocked down for handling or loading in vehicle shall constitute one article for the purpose of determining carrier's liability. When entire shipment is transported in containers or shipping boxes, each shipping package, piece or loose item not enclosed within a package in such containers or shipping boxes will constitute the article.

The value of all cargo, for purposes of the liability of the carrier, is released to a maximum of $0.60 per pound per article. Any liability above the released value will be accepted solely at the discretion of the carrier.

- 1) The carrier is directly liable to the customer for physical damage to any customer item packed, carried, loaded, unloaded or held in storage in transit if the damage is the result of negligence of the carrier; liability is subject to the limitations described in this tariff. Any claims for loss, damage or overcharge shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by the original paid bill of lading. Carrier may require certified or sworn statement of claim.
- 2) Carrier shall immediately be notified of all claims for concealed damage and shall be given reasonable opportunity to inspect alleged concealed damage.
- 3) Limitation of time for filing claims shall be seven (7) days from the date of service. The carrier's liability shall not exceed the released value of $0.60 per pound per article.
- 4) The damaged item must remain in the customer's possession and be presented upon request along with the original bill of lading in order to make a claim.
